Every contract we take, every sale we make must be filled just a little better than our friends expect it to be. To do this we keep abreast of fashion, and anything we supply has the mark of good taste and up-to-dateness. Quality and price are equally our pride. On the whole we are proud of everything we do, because we do things to be proud of.

FIGHT THE DISPENSARY

Anti-Saloon People Sending Out Lively Circular.

THEY CALL FOR ACTION

Urge Mass Meetings and Beg Each Voter to Write to His Representative in Favor of the Bill of Judge W. H. Mann.

Within the next day or two there will be sent broadcast throughout the State a call to immediate action in opposition a call to immediate action in opposition to the proposed new dispensary law for Virginia. Men and women everywhere will be urged to rise up and prevent the passage of the bill.

The Anti-Saloon League of Virginia is behind the movement, which it intends to push with all vigor. The call will go forth in the shape of a circular letter, signed by the superintendent and the field secretary, the Revs. C. H. Crawford and J. W. West, and it will be sent forth by the thousand in every direction. It is the avowed purpose of the League to kill the Claytor bill, root and branch, if it can possibly do so. Mass meetings are ordered and residents of the counties and cities are urged to write at once to senators and delegates in the Legislature, calling upon them to oppose the dispensary.

THE CIRCULAR.

THE CIRCULAR.
The circular has just been drafted and is now being struck off in large number. It is as follows:

A CALL TO ACTION.
An irrepressible conflict is on here in Virginia. A conflict between Rum and Righteousness. A conflict in which every man, woman and child in the State is interested.

man, woman and child in the State is interested.

We call on every lover of the home, Commonwealth, of humanity to help.

A great opportunity is ours. The Mann bill, which would rid a large portion of our State of saloons, has been presented in the Senate. Many Senators and Delegates are favorably disposed toward it. Many are undecided. They need to know what the People want.

A dispensary bill has also been presented. It has many features that appear to recommend it. The arguments for it are plausible. The fact that the dispensary is usually a money-making institution appeals to the pockets of tax-payers. There is danger that it will pass. There is danger that it will pass. There is danger that it is proud old Commonwealth will eater into a partnership with her citles, towns and counties in the business of selling intoxicating drink for revenue. And it is proposed that a part of this revenue, derived from a soul-destroying business, shall be used in educating our children!

God forbid the disgrace!

Men and women of Virginia, what say you? Will you not arise, and, as with one volce, cry "Shame, Shamel" until no man shall be found in our legislative halls, or in all our broad domain, to the state of the state of Richmon and the control of the state of Richmon and the proposed that a part of the season and counties in the business of selling intoxicating drink for revenue. And it is proposed that a part of this revenue, derived from a soul-destroying business, shall be used in educating our children!

Men and women of Virginia, what say you? Will you not arise, and, as with one volce, cry "Shame, Shamel" until no man shall be found the visitors of the Bosto mal show, it possesses that exceptare and pleasant feeling of being the work of the counties in the beautiful collection of the beautiful one voice cry "Shame, Shame!" until no man shall be found in our legislative halls, or in all our broad domain, to speak in behalf of such an infamy?

What can we do?

LINES OF ACTION.

1. Press the work of securing signatures to petitions for the Mann bill. We have sent blank petitions to all our workers. If any have been overlooked it has been through mistake. We have pienty more, will gladly supply you if you will sk know that you will use them. We sent also to all the pastors of the State, so far as we had their addresses, and we had lists of nearly all. If your pastor has done nothing with his, you had best find out the reason why. He is a very busy man. Perhaps he did not realize the importance of this work.

2. Write to your Senators and Dele-

2. Write to your Senators and Dele-gates, urging them to oppose the dis-pensary, Get others to do the same. Let our law-makers get such a mail as they hever had before! They need it!

3. Hold mass-meetings. Advertise them well. Have addresses. Let there be en-thusiasm. Pass resolutions favoring the Mann bill; oppose the dispensary. Send a copy of the resolutions to your Senator to present to the Senate; another to your Delegate for the House of Delegates. See that meetings are reported in your Capitol. Shall we be less active in behalf of our homes, our Commonwealth, and our brother-man, than they are in behalf of their sordid business?

House Finally Disposes of the Measure.

BUT FEW CHANGES MADE

Lower Branch to Take Up McLean Case and the General Revenue Bill-Number of Important Bills Offered in Both Branches.

The House yesterday completed the consideration of the bill fixing the salaries of State officers, and it will now go to a conference committee for the purpose of harmonizing the differences between the House and Senate, which are few and minor, and then to the Gorernor for His Excellency's signature. There were but few amendments put on in the House, and the bill is now practically as it came from the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Kelley, the McLean case was set as a special order for 12:30 to-morrow, when the right of the Mecklenburg member to his seat in the House will be determined.

There were a number of important bills offered in both branches. The most interesting in the Senate was by Mr. Claytor, the effect of which is to invalidate agreements made to exempt railroads and other common carriers from liability for damage done to freight in transit. Mr. Sale offered a bill to tax sleeping, parlor and dining cars, and

The House passed a bill amending the law in relation to the collection of taxes on delinquent lands. Mr. Lee presented a measure to allow county and city school boards to exchange public school property in their discretion.

discretion.

In the House also there were a number of local bills.

Both bodies will meet at noon to-day, when, at 12:30 P. M., the House will begin the consideration of the general revenue bill. This measure will not be disposed of for at least ten days by the lower branch.

The Senate.

The Senate was in session only twenty minutes. President Pro Tem Wickham presided. Lieutenant-Governor Willard had telegraphed to Clerk Button requesting him to ask Mr. Wickham to call the body to order. Captain Willard said he had been called to New Hampshire to attend the funeral of a relative.

The prayer was offered by the Rev. James E. Cook, the pastor of the Hoge-Memorial Church.
Chairman Opie, of the Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns, made the majority report in favor of the Anderson substitute for Senator Anderson's original bill in relation to the extension of corporate limits of cities. Mr. Cogbill made the minority report, which favors a measure practically the same as the Gardner bill in the House.

Mr. Cogbill presented a petition from citizens of Chesterfield in favor of the passage of the Mann bill.

COMMON CARRIERS.

A bil was introduced by Mr. Claytor to amend section 1295 of the Code of Virginia in relation to liability of common carriers for loss or injury to goods directed to a point of destination beyond the terminus of its own line or route. It is as follows:

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That section 1295 of the Code of Virginia, in relation to the liability of common carriers for loss or injury to goods directed to a point of destination beyond the terminus of its own line or route, be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

By Mr. Tyler: Appropriating the sum of $20,000 to be used to meet the deficit in the appropriation for the Eastern State Hospital.

The House.

The House,

The House was called to order by Speaker Ryan at noon, and the Lord's prayer was offered by Hon. Tipton D. Jennings, of Lynchurg, the House Joining in at the request of the member.
